3.0 Overtime Claim v02

3.1 Claim Form (Staff)

3.1.1 Normal Staff

Image below figure shows the overtime claim for staff. Select option from the left dropdown to sort by newest first or by oldest first. User also can filter the list by month session. Simply choose month session option on the right dropdown.

- Blue: shows the total overused from the previous day.
- Green: shows the total overtime for the day.
- Red: shows the total overused for that day. Each staff have an overtime quota of 4 hours per day. If the total overtime exceeding 4 hours, then the exceeding hours will be mark as overused (red) and will be adjusted in next day (blue).

Image below shows a permission-based overtime claim form. User only need to fill start time, end time, month claim and attachment if any. Other fields are automatically filled by system based on input filled by user. Click submit after completing the form.

3.3 Claim Review (HR)

Click dropdown list to filter the list by company. The lists are separated in tab based on its status which are New, Reviewed, Rejected, and Closed. OT Count box shows total verified claim per total submitted claim by staff. As example, 3rd month session in the list from Figure 3.11 shows '2/3' value which means '2' is claim verified by HOD and '3' is claim submitted by staff. In line with that, there is one more claim submitted by staff but not approved by HOD.

User (HR) also can view or add attachment for each claim by clicking Attachment button in Figure 3.12. Green Attachment button means there is an attachment uploaded by staff and yellow Attachment button means otherwise.

Click Update button and an update popup will appear. User (HR) can edit any claim from overtime mode, total hours, remark, and description field. Updating Total hours will affect automatic filling in Total Hours column in Figure 3.13. Therefore, update action is not recommended if the month session has been reviewed or rejected.

Figure below shows the table to calculate final amount to be paid. Wage per hour and total wages are fillable for user. Total hours will auto-filled based on sum of overtime work hours following by its rate. There is also automatic rate calculator to auto-calculate and fill wage per hour column. However, user (HR) can choose either to use the calculator or manual calculation.

Font colour in the table indicate the value is saved in the database or otherwise. Green font colour means saved and red font colour means not saved. Simply click Review or Reject to save them.

User (HR) also can reset table by clicking Reset Table button. The table will be cleared and replaced by default value especially in Total Hours column. This features only can be use before CEO/Chairman making approval for the month claim.
